CLAVIS FIDEI,

OR

THE KEY

OF

FAITH

Written in Latine by JOHN ELLIS
D. D. and Rector of Whitfield in the County of Oxford.

AND

Propounded by him in Publick Lectures upon the Apostles Creed, to the Students of Harts Hall in the University of Oxford.

Faithfully translated into English by W. F. for the good and benefit of the ingenuous Reader, as an help to build him up in his most holy faith.

2 Tim. 1.13. Hold fast the form of found words, which thou has beard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Felus.

Printed for John Creed, Bookseller in Cambridge. 1669.

Re. uri

R

nd

To the Right Worshipful The VICE-CHANCELLER, And to all other the Reverend Ma-Iters and Heads of Colledges in this University of CAMBRIDGE:

N. F. Wishesh all increase of the true Grace of Christ, and the blessed frai-tion of the Glory of God in Heaven.

Right Worshipful,

Humbly befeech you to pardon my bold-nels in presenting hefe rude and unpolished lines o your learned views: You thom God hath fee on high, ind like Stars of the greater mamitude which shine forth more more bright then others; or like as the Celestial Signs moving in their own proper Sphere govern the leveral parts of a you Reverend Doctors and Heads of Colledges, moving in your Sphere, do Superintend and govern the whole Body of this Famous University, being under your Care and Tuition I had not prefumed to prefent to this small Tract to your Wor yo ships, if that of the Poet had of not came into my minde, an or daces fortuna juvat : whereupon the rushing on you unawares, and the at an adventure, I befeech you Worships pardon, and that you do would be so far pleased as the Dedicatory.

The Epiftle.

wace this small Treatise with four favourable acceptance which contains in it certain oblevations upon the Apostles Creed; or as the Author thereof John Ellis a Reverend Doctor Divinity Styled it , Clavis Fithe which in a Translation from Oxford to Cambridge, hath mathort space learn'd in plain Inglish to speak its mother tongue: and I rather implore your patrionage and protection of it then any other, by reason of the calumnies and afperfions that some may cast upon me the Translator thereof, (qui nungradum suscepi) and although I was no Scholar brought up at the University, AZ yet

The Epiftle

yet a teneris unguiculis exen fre my tender years I have ever be a lover of learning, and a Scho lars fervant othere being abou thirty and mine years ofpire fince I was first a fervane M' Thomas Buck, at the Att o Printing 1 but having had long varation from my em ployment of composing decen (in that late and epidemical time of Plague and Peffilence) Lobegand to confiden wal my felf how to found my time to the bell advantage, and to king this fmall Book into my hand, and here and there per ufing it, I did at last affay u manflate it; the which through Gods afailtance I have finds Dedicatory.

d, and exposed to publick new. And now at length hoing of your Worships favourble acceptance and parronage dit, your unworthy fervant shall ever be paying that which s but his duty to do, the debt of gratitude and thankfulness you, though never to the full: Si ingratum dixeritis, omnia dicitis; for as one well spake, do ungrateful man is no man, but on enemy to God and man: but your humble servant hopes that your Worships shall have no cause to say so of him, nor yet suspect him to be guilty thereof: but he shall ever pray to Almighty God, that he would so water your studies with

The Epiftle, &c.

with the dew of his heavenly benediction, that after this painful life ended, he would translate you from hence into the Kingdom of his dear Son The which he prays for, who is, and shall ever remain,

Your Worships

thought payment the most humble and

obedient servant

received the fold him con

Ching to be calley

And the mount of the Sant

William Flower.

24222222222

To the Countering

To the Courteous Reader.

Here propole to the wiew this small Treatife, the which if then will be flow pains to read, thou wilt finde much mater comprised in few theets; and I be not, if thou readest it with underding; but that thou mayest finde mathings contained in it which may be of mall advantage to build thre up in most hely faith: For without faith m the Apostle St Paul intimates unto us) is impossible to please God. It may le figled à Breviary, or certain short observations upon the Apostles Creed; or more reperty, The Key of Faith: wherein many mysteries of fasth are opened and nute evident to thy understanding. And wa Cabinet consaining in it many jewels of great value, if it be kept continually look a proves to be of little or no use to the owner; in like manner, this book, if it had remained still in the original, had been of as little use to thee; but now being translated, translated, and accommodated and fitted to thy capacity, this Key of Faith dash now open unto thee, and as it were unlack thate mysteries of faith which were hid from thy understanding.

To the Courseons Reader,

I have heard from the Pulpit, by one that was well were d in History, and learned man, that the Processes, or Nob men of Poland, did uface fland up at reading of the Greed, with their form drawn in their hands ready to defeat imcafe any should offer so oppose us has much more then should me of the true Ca tholick faith endeavour vi & armis, a much as in uslies to windicase the fame for the Greed is commanded by pob Ambority to be learned of all seven b children, when they come to years of dil cretion , and what former is commanded in general, ought to be every ones particular concernment. For as the Mantick Chards or Compass deth direct the Mariner shae but skill in it, qui oculum ad afte, manum ad clavum haber) to fleer his course anight to mhat former place be is bound, that be runs not precipitately upon dangerous Thomas and

To the Courseous Readers

dangerous eacks or spelmess in like man-ner this little book may be some help to direct thee to look up to God by an eye of faith that show splits it not the felf upon the dengerous racks of unbelief and ignothere into fafe harbour, even to heaven the haven of happiness whilest athers remaining in unbelief, making hippyrack of faith and a good confcience become caftmays. Lege ac perlege, veruntamen ne dijudica antequam perlegisti; Read is over and over, but judge not before thou hast throughly perused it: and if thou reapest any benefit give God the glory, for I acknowledge my self to be but weak instrument for such a work as this: yet as near as I could, (avoiding circumlocutions or byperbolical phrales) I have expressed the scope and meaning of the Author verbatim, There is contained in this small Tract the myflery of the Trinity explained, fo far forth as is necessary for thee to know, and likewise many excellent observations upon the Incarnation of our Savieur, with the

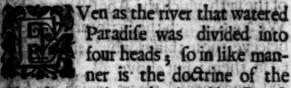

To the Courteous Reader,

the manner of his crucifixion expressed ad vivum, to the life; and in all the other Articles of the belief being briefly handled, thou wilt finde many excellent obfervations, much comprized in few words. And to conclude, I wish that these precious truths were imprinted in our minds as well as in this book, the which God grant. Courteons Reader , Farewell in the Lord Jefus 10 mos known a him die p weeks tow of perlegon various men the dissilies arrequent projectific treat ne order and coops but judy in our before nedwhalf throughly ment of account of old Well air leneth or ve ced the obesingler is acknowledge my jed to be bus a mock influence at for for a work as they seems when as I could covered any the envision or bope leaved plan der ting has a expedient the feets and mention of the manner of country little the metioned to the finality white the mythey of the transfer expended of the part mond on both not print the second of the of them o man careed as any or itsens of the late of the late of the late of the unitalitaninininini

(2)的人,这种人的人,

The Key of Faith.

Church: to wit, The Apostles Creed, the Decalogue, or ten Commandments, the Lords Prayer and the Sacraments.

First, we are to live in the Church by faith. Secondly, to come unto the rule of life by precepts. Thirdly, lest we faint, we are to take heed by prayer; and when notwithstanding all these, we are yet weak, we are to have recourse to the seals of grace; which are the Sacraments.

First, faith is necessary. Without faith it is impossible to please God, Heb. 11.6. For the sum of faith is contained in the Apostles Greed, or Symbol. It is called a Symbol, because it is a token or mark by which Christian Souldiers are discerned cerned from others: or sin as outlan-Asas from contributing, as if it were compiled and composed by the Apofiles. However it is faid to be the Apostles, because it comprehends the sum of the faith which the Apostles preach'd, We are to learch the Scriptures, and to beleeve those things which are contained in them: but above all, the ipen and fundamental places which are funply necessary. S. Austin writes, they are to be blamed, not to be liftened to, if perhaps there be any such that should lay, How knowest thou that those books which are ministred to us by men, are the minde of the onely true and unerring God: for that for it felf it is chiefly to be believed. Notwithstanding there are enough aparingia, evidences, which evince and clear it, that the Scripture is inspired from God: whereof these are the most choice; The authority of the writers, who were in an extraordinary jesty of the doctrine. The amplitude and clearness of the miracles. The truth of the propheties. The fanctity of the Bibler nothing is here to be found difforant to piety and truth, nothing of contradiction. And to add to this, the fublimity of the mean style, and the sublime humility. To conclude, the harmonious truth of either Testament: that which lieth hid in the Old, is manifest in the New.

2

Lib. 6. confess.

But the Symbol or Creed it felf, which is taken out of the Scriptures, containeth in it twelve Articles, and is as it were the a zodiack of a Christian. But a Activate may be reduced to four parts: The cle in beaven first concerning God the Father, who wherein hath made all things. The second contained cerning God the Son, who hath tessigns deemed mankinde. The third, concernate ing the H. Ghost, who hath sanctified the faithful. The fourth, concerning the Church and its priviledges, which the Lord hath communicated to it.

But some one may say, The works object. of the Trinity which have a reference to the creatures are undivided, common to all the three Persons, how cometh it then

The Key of Faith.

then to pais, that creation is attributed to the Father, redemption to the Son fanctification to the H. Ghost!

Anfw.

This cometh to pass, not to exclude, but to distinguish between the Person, and the order of their acting. Omitting these, let us come to the Articles themselves.

The first is, I believe in God the Pather Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. It is said I believe, not we believe; because every one ought to have a special saith of his own, explicit not implicit, or taken upon trust. We cannot see well with other mens eyes, neither is it sufficient to have an opinion in divine matters.

Lib. 6. Analys. fidei cap. 13.

195,13

The disputation of Gregory de Valentia is of no force; in which he thus as series concerning a man that is not Theologically learned: That if he prefer the Romish Church for its outward authority before the Reformed, then God shall have nothing to object against this illiterate man in that most dreadful Tribunal: for God doth not require of him that he fould come to the knowe of the much by fearthing into the rine, fince that he understands not ological controversies. These things he. But let him fay what he will, y one certainly ought to hold the funce and faving sense of the Arti-although not all the most difficult cumitances of questions from thence riling. But now to beleeve, is not onely a know and give affent to those things which are propounded in the Gospel, malfo to acquiefce and rest satisfied in God, and to beleeve God, and to beleeve 3 sures. in God. In the two first senses finners addevils do agree, the third sense none amin to, unless they be such who have fish formed in them: in this manner to deeve is to go into God by good works, faith the Master of the Sen-3 Sent. To beleeve a God, is to know there 1 for beleeve a God, is to know there 1 in fuch a God. To beleeve God, is to 2 confess that he is true but to beleeve in 2 God requires application, that he is my

God

Hitherto we have neated concerns faith it felf, now concerning the object of faith, of which God is the princip whom not to know is death, and who to know is life. And first, it is to be d monftrated that God is. This may be proved out of the book of Nature, incl. much as he is the Creator, and out of the book of Scripture, in that he is Creator

Sum part. Conferver and Redeemer. God may be known, although not comprehended, r qualt. 11.Art 7 Theft

Aguinas faith.

These arguments that are drawn from rure do prove charactere is a God. which norwithstanding are common to cripence also, to wit the most beautiful rder of the deatures, as, the heavens delare the glory of God, Pfal. 19.1, the understanding of man, the knowledges of minciples, and the knowledge of this principle, That God is, Rom. 1. 19, the remblings of confciences in finners, the rards of good meny the punishments the wicker, the political order; the moick ventues, the invention of arts, the prediction of future events, the end and profit of all things, the impossibility of the progress of causes without end. k may be proved likewise out of Seridivers apparitions, by Aupendious marks, by the writings of the Prophets, and by the admirable event of things, He therefore that denies that there is a God, is not void onely of reaion, but sense also, as Muitena is reported to have faid. It is manifest therefore that there is a God, now let us fee what he is, God

The Key of Faith.

God cannot be defined because he is immenfe, he may be described Philo fophically and Theologically.

Philolophically, God is a Spirit, for ficient of himfelf, and the cause of all good.

Theologically, God is the most per feet being, one in effence, three Persons.

The Theological description differ from the Philosophical, first in per ction: for it adds something unknow to nature concerning the Trinity, an unfolds or explains that which is know to nature. Secondly, in effect, nature knowledge renders men onely inexc fable, Rom. 1. 20, but supernatur knowledge is faving: hence then true God differs from the gods of t Gentiles, in Attributes, Persons, World In Attributes, because they are no rightly and entirely understood by then that are without the pale of the Church In Persons, because the Gentiles are ignorant of the Trinity. In Works, because the wonderful works of God and especially that of the Redemption, are not perceived by them who are our of the Church.

The Key of Fath.

But now omitting other proprieties. ich amongst Schoolmen are handled large, I will first shew, that God is one: the Lord he is God; there is none belides him , Deut. 4.35. Furthetmore, chief Majesty is competent to no ore but one. None can be the most rect, unless he be but one but God means in him all possible perfection by fon of the latitude of his effence. es there can be but one onely Omniotent. And if there should be more ods, shey are all imperfect, or the refe refuperAuous, both (which to fay) is furd. Belides, that which is Infinite be but one onely; neither can there but one first cante of all things: and conclude, it is most necessary that the nely chief good be but one. God thereore is one, and the onely one, as Saint Bernard faith.

Yet there are many that are called object. Gods. But this is done improperly either Answ.

B 3

by

The Key of Faith. by reason of a certain similarde or like nels, or according to the opinion of w man. First, by a certain similarude, a either for eminency of nature and wifdom, as Angels; or for excellency office, as Magistrates, or for exceeding great power, as the Devil or for the too too much indulging of it as th Majelly is competent tylled

Secondly out of a falle opinion men, Idols are called Gods, Sign (3) volt appears therefore that God is o now we are to hew that he is shree Persons. The Tringy campos be prov by the light of nature, as Thomas be eth lome fronteps of the Trinier he the creatures is el pecially from the st faculties of the foul, the understand memory, and will. But thefe do one produce a confused knowledge as diffinit. God is three but not threefold for he is a most sumple being of huntel and we use the name of Trinity, no Toplo because the Scripture faith for but be canfe it doch not contradict it, and fo

Tho. Par.

1.0. 32. art. I. .Sent.

dift 3.

The Ko of Faith

thing it felf it is in the Scriptores. ingh not the very word, that being plied, this not expressed; and you words; especially by reason of the deles for the most part under Scripture reffions. n many places of Holy Writ, ir doth Menny appear, that there are three rions, Matth. 3. 16. The Father is baptized, and the Holy Choft condern in the likeness of a dove, oh. 5.7. Turk are three that bear mes in heavon. The Father is of felf, the Son from the Fasher betion from eternity. The Holy Ghost accedeth from both. The Eather is what the Son, but not an analysis effence and fo of the reft. But this matter better is a faithful ignomen then trails knowledge 1 conunde sherefore with Rabers Holest, a Quaft. writing of exferda who se Gabrael ing.

B 4

Biel

obler.

Arein

Object.

The Key of Facth. Biel relates it, faith thus modes Quaft. vo De-Digne loqui de Per sonis term I. Vim transcendit rationis fent. dift. 13. qu. Excedit ingenia, 11. Quid fit nafci, quid processus, Me nescire sum professes.

Thus Englished. To peak condignly of the Persons t Transcendeth reason in a bigh degre It doth exceed all wits. What it is to be born, what the pro Alids I under ftand it not I do profele. proceeding. Some one perhaps may fay, that Obfer. three Persons are not effence. But Anw. is true of a finite effence onely. N Object. over, that where there are three one, there are four, but in God ther three Persons and one effence, yet An w. Object, are not really diftinch. But it may be jected, that their offences are diff whole operations are diffinet. We Anfw. fwer, that this is to be affirmed one persons that have a finite being. first Person then of the Trinity is ca the Father. The name of the Part

ken formerimes personally by way of inction from the Son and Cometimes heidly in reference to the creatures. the whole Divine effence

The first Person is called Father, her in respect of Christ, or in respect us. Or like as Durandur flieweth, he he Father of all generally the Father 1 Christ fingularly, and the Pather of elect especially

Grede in Denni, I beleeve in God refers not onely to the Father, but o to the Son and Holy Ghost and Father is called omnipotent, not duding the other Persons, au 312 514

God is omnipotent, because he can all things what he pleaseth all things trido not imply a contradiction, and the are not repugnant to the nature of because the doctrall things without fidnity, or by his beck onely, because talone hath power of doing all things, d for that he is the Author of all creadipower, planted at a mil and

If the faid, that God cannot die, fin, object. We answer, God can do thole Answ. things things which in phypower, but nothin that argues impotency or weakness this would not stand with his perfection And if it be faid, then be cannot do the things which are contradictory. We apfwer, that this would be inconfift with his immutability a 321 10 an in hors by niceties. This is the on principal thing baceing that God is nipotent; he that fewerts God hath feat; and if Godbe with on who can be to the Son and Holy Chan heing

The Key of Faith

It follows in the Creed, that Q the Creator of beauty and earth, thank the wholeworld, theorginmo at he thing out of nothing whis either im diaco, re the first dump; or median things produced outlot that lump. If power of creating belongs to Gods in appertains not to the creatures: cause there is marking presuppose that work, which is capable of diffe

The tion by the action of the inftrame some agent sous of hour fhewech couch gener of the emanation or pro-And affuredly Sugrez in his Me hal disputations and Pererius in book of Natural Philosophie, prove thing very notably. It may be de-Mated out of Scripture, thun the ld was created by God, and by naturations also for there is no infinite rels of causes and effects in neuero the world is the first and most lens effect, therefore it is from the and most excellent cause, The of ophers err therefore, who with as y, or suppose with Plate an uncreased mental or with Democritus, Lency and bring in atoms, and bepor ing of them by chance! Harmogene who affirmed therworld to be so-rel with God, and the Stoicks who

But the Philosophers object, whithe object, and be not eternal God did not always governing therefore he was formetimes de. We answer, He was not therefore Answ.

idle,

The Key of Knowledge.

idle. But what then did he do! It may be faid, that he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world, Eph. 1. or as S. Auft in answereth:

For them that do too curiously enquire After (uch things, he made th' inferna -wanted fire. bod wall a leasure

But every thing that hath a beginning hath his end; the world hath no en eres. Here is a distinction to be ma between things that have their begin nings by a natural generation, and fur as have them by creation, both which thofe as well as thefe, God may either preferve, or reduce them into nothin But it may be faid again, that he w is ford and governous actually, is mo happy then he who is such an one tentially: therefore, either the wo was from eternity, or God is made me happy by the creation.

We answer, that no felicity can crae to God from the creature, who most perfect and happy in himself.

The world was created of God th

Father.

All things are created out of nothing, a out of the substance of God, nor out any preexistent matter.

But out of nothing comes nothing. Object.
This is true in a natural way or course, Answ.

or as proceeding from men, not in respect of the next matter, not in respect of the first.

He created all things most wifely,

very good.

But the Prophet faith, There is no Object.

end in a city that God hath not done,

Amos 3. 6. This is to be understood of Answ.

the evil of punishment, not of the evil

Besides, the world was created, not a sudden, but in the space of six days, the beginning, Gen. 1. In the begin-things, so Basil and Ambrose. Before all Homes. Created things, saith S. Austin. And it Hexam. Is created for the glory of God, and gen. ad the profit of men.

Under creation the providence of ". 1.

God

God is comprehended, God doth a work by preferving, but nor by creating things.

As there is nothing made but by creating effence, so nothing that without the power thereof keeping preserving it, as Anfelm saith.

In Monol. 6,12. Tom.3.

For providence is Gods action working, whereby he doth liber wifely, well and powerfully preferve govern all things for the glory of Name, and the falvation of the go.

It is the action of God, for its so an idle intuition or looking on, but a effectual administration of things. The most minute or least things are subject to Gods providence; as sparrows, hair, worms. God is all eye, because he seeth all things, yea the most abject of them. And excellently saith S. Ambrose. It be not an injury and disparagement to God to have made the most small things, much less disparagement is it is him to govern them being made. Go doth act most freely. God is not subjected to necessity, but necessity to him

1 Offic.

stuichten? who he God to a faral .will. they of exules : God doch all things o covertain ends, contrary to that he Epicareans, who affirm that all scome to pals by forumer Chance fortune are words used by the unned, faith 9. Bafil, nothing comes by cone, s.in ce in respect of God, but in regard Pfal 32. rand S. Auftin doth acknowledge, Research he did ill to use the name of fortune often in his writings: God workerh enfully, and cannot be hindred by might, bound by any law, wearied my imporency or weakness: God th all things well; because he is the gerh good, and maketh use of evilce of God is either univerfal or parlar, That of the Apostle, T.Cor. 9. Doth God take care for oxen? is not ken absolutely, but comparatively, God hath not the likecare of beafts the hath of men; his care towards

Neither is it any obstacle that many object.

Aufw, things are to confused, Confused thi are governed by God, but not p fuledly, and in the feeming co fion there is some order. Neither de the inconstancy of weather hinder whit, for fnow, hail, ice, they do ! will. It becometh us to admire works of God, but not to fearth curiously into them. Neither do n sters and natural defects hinder. Th are supexcases, the transgressions nature, according to Arifotle his fe book of the generation of animals, T forfake not the order of the univer cause, but of the particular onely according to Thomas, they fall short the ultimate or last end, which, is the perfection of the thing generated, b not of their nearest end : for nature worketh and formeth fomewhat at leaft.

And if any one doth speak concer ing fins. We answer, that fins are n actions, but are accidental to action which are good of themselves and fro God likewise. But some one may

The Key of Fait.

ppen by the providence of Ge ne, by the providence of God per-ig, determining, directing them to best ends bur not effecting, on being nfounded who do think or imagine to be the Author of evils or wich els: this is the vote or wish of Dar Lib 4.de work is attributed both to God and 6. 264 inner pas the felling of Fofeph, or crucitying of Christ. We answer this is done in a diverte selpect prit ributed to the finner, as it is an evil but to God as it is a good one. is the reason of that common simile horf-man riding on a lame horfe, halting or lamenels proceeds not the horf-man, but from the horfe is Fofeph's brethren fold him out of cel God permitted this out of merleft he should have been slain, for own glory, and for the great advange and profit of his fervant. The Jews sciffed Christ out of ill-will, God the ther permitted this out of his greatest good

The Key of Full.

good will towards men; Fudur betta Christ ontrof noverouspeis out heaven! Pather out of love, amount of an and an God do meline and force the will of the wich have formed man in his mothers we better of hinnings or to this end to he better to this end to he breated Epac to dead a wicked life, or move a third to kill the innocess; him that is not prepared to:dit: if he most retrains that God doch not prove of mickedness, neither is he cause of it yer all things subject th felves to his providence all his cre rational or inational, all events, goo evil. But his principal care is of his d His providence in respect of the most special We should do well the fore to be pavient in advertity thank in prosperity, and hope for the fun For our God is omnipotent good crue old mevalendo along has

Higherdo of the first part of a Creed, the fecond follows, which is a cern ming faith in Christ in these words: Addin Fefor Christ his onely Son our

The fecond Person is true God hot re ntan otherwise he were not the a of our fairh. He is called Jefus in Hobrew Will or Will that is a gefebuah rious, because he fareth his people, Fine the x. ad. b. This inamed I see us is by in the mouth, melody in the ear, le of rejoycing in the bears, Others e had this name Following a Captain made to and Follow the High Priest: they by the imposition of men, Fe by the denuncistion of tan Angel. tole ware faviours by a figure and byally a but I cles train and in his own the They brought corporal good gs, and Jefus lpuitual Theywere inification fervants y ble the Million, fusion Springs and Linguist, or Superbely. He slone faverh excluding the artists. There is no other name given oder beaven, whereby they may be faved, the 4. to. He faveth from the evil of and from the evil of punishment: the

the cause being taken away the effect ceaseth: let therefore every faithful foul rejoyce and fay, O Jefu be thou to me

Secondly, our Mediator is called Xel sos, unclus, anointed, à zela ungo, to anoint, but in Hebrew he is called And as he hath his Hebrew name Jeschuah , because he was to be the Saviour of the Jews, fo he hath hi Greek name Christ, because he was be the Saviour of the Greeks, that is the Gentiles and other nations: for al the Gentiles were called Grecians S. Austin faith, because from the tin of Alexander the Great, the Greeks ving the rule almost over all nations, propagate their tongue rogether w their Empire. As the Prophets, Prie and Kings were wont to be anointed likewife Christ was anointed, although not in regard of the figne outwardly and ceremonially, yet in respect of the He was anointed, because he was or dained to the office of a Mediator, enduc

Mafchiach.

> Epift. 200.

25

died with gifes for the accomplishing the same work of this duty. The bewing of gifts was in reference to his mane nature, the ordination to his ice was according to either nature. rift was anointed to be a Prophet a Teacher, who should make known will of his Father: to be a High est and a Priest, that by the factifice his body he might redeem us, and the might always intercede for us ea King, that he might guide us by word and Spirit. This is our duty en that by the odour of his ointments should run after him. Draw thou us Lord Jesus, and we shall run after From Christ we are called Chris, and this name was first given m at Antioch , Act, 11.26, Of his ess we have all received, and he hath de us kings and priefts to God our ther. We are kings that we should the against Saran, the world, yea and ainft our felves

Fortion oft qui se, quam qui fortissima

The Key of Faith.

far. firenger that subdues bimisely by

Then be that conquers greatest walls by

We are Priefts, that we may facrifice to God the facrifice of praise, prayer, contrition, alms, rightebushess; and in fine, serve him in all things appertaining to Christian life;

We are Prophets, that we may know God, and knowing him we may truly profess him: that we may be Christian not onely in outward profession, but also by inward communion; that we may be members of the Church; not onely in appearance, but also in reality and cuth. As for the remaining titles of our Memator, He is next of all called the Son of God.

He was his Son according to the Divine nature, being light of light, and God of God. And according to the his mane nature after the common manning in respect of creation, and after a special manner in respect of conception. The Son is the onely begotten, for he had construction according to evernal generation, not according to his extraordinary conception, yet the electrare called Christs brethren by reason of the Fahels adoption, and likeness of humane more; for their liberality, charity, and to some kinde of conformity they have with Christs and all all to a large.

Besides, our Mediatoris called Lord, lord was a title of the Emperours, so igh; that Cefar Angastus would not be called, as Dio and Tertulian restifies teming himself to be unworthy of so text a name. It seems he did this by Divine instinct, that that glorious Title leng untouth'd, might remain to the mely Son of God, The King of kings, and Lord of lords; who straight after ame into the world. But at this time the lark call their Emperour the great and and the Tarturians, Persans, and there of the East country, Saltan, that

Jefus is our Lord by right of creation, that a 16 by right of redemption, which

The Key of Fails.

By right of principality, for he is the head of call principality and power,

By right of preferving his unto falvatheep, John 10:28,

By right of the Fathers constitution, because the Father bath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the hed over all things to the Church, Eph. 1, 22, and hath made him heir of all things. Hebry 1, 2, 1011 and hath made him heir of all things.

His Dominion therefore extends no onely unto us, but unto all creatures.

Seeing therefore Christ is the Lord of us all, we ought to be humble and meek one towards another; for we are fellow-fervants of the Lord. Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that ye also have Master in beaven, faith S. Paul, Col. 4.1. And seeing that Christ is the Lord, let us adhere to him alone, otherwise we shall have very many strange lord, whom to serve, it will be most miserable.

oftanily faid S. Ambrofe, O how maords hath he who hath not one? he h so many lords or masters as he hath yea holy father, he hath to many Agefles as lufts, and certainly, thou felf being judge ; luft is a most furiis mifrels. Let us therefore ferve Lord Jelus onely, And if we be noand generous Christians, let us not mit of any other government. As nomas Aquinas observeth of horses, na spirited and wel-mettled one will ot admit of any other rider but his own fler, and is moved onely at his beck. Hitherto of the titles of the Media-or, he is further to be described, accordng to the degrees both of his exinanin or humiliation, and likewife of his diation and flance it will an it

First, Christ did empty himself, and stame very low. The word is made flesh, John.14. The Son of God is made the son of man, that the fon of man might become the for of God. He is now who was, and what he is he was not, faith perrin. Hilary. Our Mediator is become God ub. 10

The Key of Raish

and man, that he might conjoyn God and man together again, who were fepa rated and disjoyned was a vision of dis

Object. And if it be faid what the stelle of Christ could not be united to out fell

40

Anfw. because our field is finful. We answer It doth not follow, for finfulness is accidental to our field, not of the substance or effence of it; fo that Christs fiells may be united to our fielt, but not as to the finfulness of it wilder and will be much

If it be faid that no accession can be made to God, we fay That is true if meant of perfection, but not of union, object. If further any object, that the humane nature cannot come or be united to God It is true, unless that God affume it. That it is most ignominious for God to be a creature. It is most ignominious for Anfw. him to be changed into a creature, but not to be united with it, without the change of his effence and a little

But although there be in Christ two natures, yet there is onely one Person. Airhough he be God and man, yet he's not two, but one Christ as S. Ashine DAG fins

oot

ne m ian his はのはのはははいのいのは be projecteth in his Creed. The his ine nature of Christ doth not confimea person y because it sublists not of oby it fell, but it is upheld or fustained and by the Word wom to Baland as If it be objected, that God and man object. ne two persons. We answer, Thatitis Answ.

me, if they be not united. To have

Tiebe faid, that dead and always liing, are nor the fame, It is true, that they are not the fame, according to the ame + But Christ was fo according to his divers natures, seining entragora

If it be enquired, How is the Incarnanon attributed to the Son ! We are to know, that the Incarnation is the work of the whole Trinity by inchoation, and of the Son alone by termination. He affuned our nature, which the Father formed in him, out of the fubstance of the Wirgin by the Holy Ghoff. This Abstantial knitting or joyning although produced by all the Petions, yet formally it did not knic or conjoye the humane nature with any, but with the Person of the Short as guares copioully, and other D. Thom.

Divines.

Divines. And of the two natures there was an union made hypoftatically, or personally: not physically as the form is united to the matter: nor spiritually, as the elect among themselves, and with God; nor by help and affiftance, as the mariner to the ship , nor relatively, as a friend to a friend, nor mystically, as in the Sacrament; the two natures were united inconfusedly, unchangeably, nor admitting of any division, inseparably, Inconfuledly, each nature having their properties remaining; but the properties of one nature by communication of idioms is attributed in the concrete to the person denominated from either nature:as that God bath purchased his Church by his blond, Acts 20, 28. The Lord of glory was crucified, 1 Cor. 2. 8, this is spoken according to his humane nature, This speech ought to be taken in the concrete, not in the abstract: and it follows not, that because God is said to fuffer, therefore the Deity luffered.

超出版

boi

mi

(On

COF

100 of,

fie

W

Secondly, the natures were united, inconvertibly, that is without the change

the Divine into the humane, or of Thirdly, individedly, without divifor of natures, although not without altinction: they are not two, but one Christ, Fourthly, inseparably, this union remins for ever. At the death of Christ his soul was separated from his body, but the Divine nature remained united to both after its own manner; the natural mich was dissolved, and not the personal.

Thus far concerning the Incarnation in general. The parts thereof follow, the conception of Christ and his nativity.

Conceived by the Holy Ghoft.

Not of the effence, but by the efficiency of the Holy Ghost: This particle of, doth not denote the matter, as if that Christ was of the Holy Ghost, for he was of the fathers according to the stell, Rom. 9.5.

God also is immutable, and the Word assumed our slesh, and is not changed into it: but of signifies the essi-cient

cient cause; because by the vertue and power of the Holy Ghost Christ was conceived.

His conception by the Holy Ghot speaks the miraculous forming of the flesh, or body of Christ without the help of man: then, the sanctifying of a from original fin, and the hypostatical union of it with the Word

The body of Christ is chought to have been made simul to samel, together and at once perfect, not successive by, as the bodies of men are in the space of sourcy days; otherwise Christ should not have been conceived a man, but a embryo; yea he was inspired with a ressonable soul. Wickedly did Apollings say that the soul of Christ was his Divinity. His soul was heavy and say, which is not competent to the Divinity, at his death his soul departed from his body; but his Divinity did not recede or depart.

He was conceived for us, behold his love! how can we conceive to express it. He was conceived of the Holy Gholt.

21,313

behold

chold his wisdom t that he might be the from fin: let us mourn by reason of an impure conception. Let every one is with David, Behold, in iniquity was to octived, Pfal, $1.5. His pure conprion will cover our impurity, if that the after we endeayour to be pure.

So was his conception, his nativity borist was born, that he might signific to us the truth of his humane nature. Born of Mary, to shew that he was of the saliers, to wit, Dirvid and Abraham, of whom Mary came. Born of the Wirgin Mary, left he should be defiled with original sin, and thus the Scripture should be suffilled; this the Prophet foretold, this 7, 14, Behold, a Pirgin shall conceive and bring forthar Son,

Neither were the Sybils filent in this matter, if those things be true which are written of them. And truly Boerius in his Traffate of Scholastical discipline, reports a wonderful thing, to wit, that there was found in Plato's tomb a plate of gold, in which was written, I believe Virgin. And such a like story Nicephorus tells of a certain man, that in the time of Constantine and of his mothe Irene; there was a stone chest found and der the earth with this inscription. The Messias shall be born of a Virgin, and the leeve in him.

Out of all these ariseth the confirm tion of our faith, and firm confolant that a Saviour is born , and born to Ifai. 9.6. When he was rich, he beca poor for us. For our lakes he was diff ced of men , and contemned of the va gar, he was humble, because he would not have us to be proud; he was born of a poor Virgin, that he might thewire u that we ought not to boalt in riches an honour; and that he might teaching be contented with the meanest condi tion. The Virgin brought forth her Sor & the wrapped him in fwadling clothes having taken him first in her Virgin arms, into the which he being new born the Angels had laid him, as Suarez con jectures. The Pastor of Iirael manifeste himfe felf to be a good Shepherd to the herds. The Angels brought news reat joy that should be to all people, that a Saviour was born, Christ the in the city of David, and Suddenly e was wish the Angel a mulcitude of heavenly host praising God. Jesus bread of life was born in Berbleben house of bread. He was born in a e, that we should not so much care comproous Palaces in which place wards there was built by S. Helen a Beda at fumptuous Church to the honour locis fatt Virgin the Mother of God. oncerning the manner of his birth, is wonderfully fingular, and fin-rly wonderful. Of this thing Saint fin doth very admirably discourse, ng thus, Let the incredulous Jew me; how, or in what manner the rod (to wit Aarons) budded and formed, and brought forth almonds in I will tell him how the Virgin conved and brought forth. But truly neit can the Jew explain the one, nor other Divine mysteries are norta be discussed on searched out by the un francing, but to be adored by fairb, fair S. Gregory. I believe therefore that it enough for us dimply to believe, th Christ was born of the Virgin M And certainly we ought pioutly to hold ther of our Redeemer always remain a Virgin. She was a Virgin before, and after her bearing or bringing for The which SI Jeron atlarge prove and what gainst Helvidinin And that place, Ma her first born son , notes that he kne bet not at all. The like you have, a & a ound the last veries where it is fa Michae the daughter of saut had childe until the day of her death, th is, the never had any, the min the Bur how is Christ faid to be the fifth born, if he had no brethrent We fwer, that Christis to called, not bed there was not any fon after him, but canforhere was none before him.

10 And where in the Scripture then mention made of the brethren of Chr ther e coulin-germans and kindinens flood of onte them faid unto the his Son to Bligan and and aid scherro of the nativity of Chris his good pleature, diswellowedle Ha faffered under Pontines Pilate 101 he whole life of Jefus was a pathon, inferred in his circumcifion, in his trinto Egipt; in falting fourty days, in his temptation by the Devill he and in the want of the chiefeft felt he fufficied all kinde of evils, all ine infirmities, fin excepted he ured poverty, injury, and the lende s and to conclude, he fuffered death seach that Christ felt no pain in his the normuniforcow in his foul ac the e of his paffion wis vcontrary ato b and heretical, as it is should be the rook not upon him to be true real man, but onely his fimilicudes outuly faith the Master of the Senten The Divine aquite did reft; that the & Sens. wave might fuffer, but is upheld the had dift. 14.

MANE

The Rey of Faith.

40

his Son to sufferings, was either inward or anniward. The inward was the love his good pleasure. The outward the folds the unitery of sim, from when was mercy, sin it self, from whence fice; and the myranny of the Desfron whence is and the revenge; the end and so the self tespect; the end in respect to the fruit or benefit in respect of us; and they are two, the glore God, and our salvation, they are two, the glore God, and our salvation, they are two.

The Judge under whom he fuffer was Pentius Pilate the Governour of Judea for Tiberius the Emperour: It is might be evident that Jefus was true Meffias; who was not to come the feepure was wholly taken away for Judah, Gen. 49.10, which dame now pass, Judea being overcome of the mans. Then it is also said that he fered under Pilate; that the truth that which Chirist spake concerning being delivered up to the Gentiles in nifelt, Watth 20 mg Belidelaber his Mufferings underbigitare were heavy and grievous, For Film ed Christ, and with thongs on the two, but by the hands of the exers, fairli S. Ferma Soon after his body athroughout was none footges, a being growned with as adorned with a purple tobe, and presented by a new lander of more as it were to act into the are it is a rings him in a King of milety to held of the people, and faith, the he man. By which words howout moved the Jews to may, Bur they de heartest more as they were limb ione modernino and the released being au vere very inflant requiring that the unocene Jelus might be crucified e could have denied chang but he d mot and against this conscience , faile elivered Jeins into the hands on his mies, Moreover, Pilatel wife, whom In Chr. 10, An.

979.07F

The Key of Moids

D a militearnest

Thinkey of Banks

sanch widt her bushand what he we and specification of the Jews did of framely probabilization his wifeshade Perhaps Publicativite dream dythic Chould finair favir, which afterward geo accordingly prophen the was te Hade loco Finas in France von A thus, sold do and ortiers bepores restriction attisturates pur of idefre hed aid wicken chands upon himielf.
or Function more Christ fusicing in Pillite an earlierary fredges when he Highwork from the fevere judgeme God and reconclude, that his h en) migner beraten onter ter 18-18-19.

garrin ekstelis vilden sovetise Helk beraten einterekele in him, Fallere Frenchmu Graf nichtliche vilde ein net grach in ber gen liegten sowie war chen jehre Gande in ein de vereichen. nde for his adam, time for our files til me in many herobjected, uchar he

Object. Surgains this pation of Christian of the start has a start of the start has beginning of the work from the beginning of the work from the patient from the patient could this work from the patient could this start of the start of th

The Key of East

for chiss we infivent that Christians Anfw.

from the beginning of the world;

ppointment election powery offices acceptations, but her by execution. es flain from the beginning in which e and purpose of Godyrin antideal, 55 100 on but under Bilete in a real fint of anile her anique did northing this want.

God decreed beforehind ritto he anile is a solution or his did northing this want.

Animal of the Condition of the c nte of in and by his presigning the reddings of the evil therem the redding the hold Chill. The school displetied the passion was acceptable; a total he standard act of the Jews and eidispleased God extremely; but the sonost Christ, and sheredemption akinde from thence aning avas ex- profp. at ding acceptable; decreed from ever-objects yand preordained. Whichis Profpers Pum, nother Doctors judgement in the rip.13.

D 4 point,

the Key of Lath, TANA point From what hath been fooken is manifest, how that the wicked do e cure the countel of God although th purpose no such thing, and yet notwin flanding are not exempted from blan object . In But forme one may fay, Christ our to fuffer and therefore neither Pl Bojdo mor the Jaws may feem to have find An w. He ought indeed upon supposition neceffichibeing derived from a volum winh decree afthis dying I for Jefus fuffe have estaped his enemies hands.

Me have cheard that Christ fuff and under whom, It follows in Greed that he was consisted Mar, 29 all And they are urgent to have this nilbriene of the cross inflicted on before any other, as being the most of lingring and frameful death of all: offender was exposed alive to the and mockery of all people hanging a tree he was accurfed. Dant 21, 23 kinde of hanging, pot onely among Fews, but among the Romans alfo, of most extreme infamy and differ

the Rey of Fait.

schi seneca and Livy testifie. And seneca efeets to be the reason, that he who pift tot. don highpis judged in a manner 14. dally to creat on the earth with his and therefore he is lifted up from wherefore Ohrift that he might werhimfelf of acaecount, did ander this most vile and accurled kinde of the and took that curfe upon himfelf wis die coust Gut 3. 197 and 1 . au Bue wherefore would God have his rathered be crucified then other punished, the reason was faith Tertions arbaiche under overcame by the trees, the sheep people by this environs working, behavious working, behavious working, that by chief the form of the most of and punishments he might promise for must copious redemperon by fair geo the late the Divine Julicer to o tronfolation benegotment our chief tronfolation of hirdly rockatistic the forest and oracles of the Prophets, in 1th 5, the other was fore fignified. For the August. It is 6, de Giv. Dei trues, Num 27, Feb. 3, & the facrifices 6, 32, which which

The Key of Faith

which were lifted up on high, Librar were the types of Christ crucified A as afune have the wood whereon he afretwards laid, Genota, folikewie Children wood of the Crois G part of the mount Morish was with Fernfalen , wherein & offeremilition us dun of a tradition of the Jews a The and Christ likewife were offer up. This place was afterwards called mounc of Galdaupar by reason of a fculls of the condemned that were the pur roideach. Here Addres fenll as for thinkings found william Textuliam other of the Ancients deemed to he been buried under the Groß a former affirmings, that ithe ibloud of the hanging upon the Grois san klowa Adams (cull which manifelts to us he and his posterity beleaving in G thould be faved by his bloud I rand was believed by the godly, as & & a syclastic of the Refundable of the Refundable

dsidu

if there is a derived mion eltions unto Sharion whet us in the simetheredit our time for the which ill was pierced through with nails a of laspente les as in dike manhen by the per faith look apongelus want we it be healed wand as much as in us les webe cincified mito the world this cautic leading blowholly fixed in heart who was wholly fall ned upon femon of his enemies au to alor will for puls me from his orneifer ion to was from the dignity of the Person The Lamb of God expired on the tole rati the (ametriore) harther even-glambore the daily fatrifice was offer movies she Templeon to mit let The which with die Jeles whiche rediction third hear in the afternoon. Wicethoof Clark was voluntaria and detrock his life from him y buckerland cercainty apparent from his fitting dry to die, lose their speech, and do onely wheez 18 wheel in the throat slot without cante faid the Centurion greatly admiring This is the son of God, Mat. 27.54. The bowing of his head theweth the fame. whereas other men die before they bow their head And because the death of Christ was voluntary, therefore meritonous; antherwise heavould doed have been punished for duridifobedience. Se condly), his death washingocent, which the whole History preverh and the confeffion of his enemies, Thirdly, his death was precious whendignity whereof was from the dignity of the Person, and for equivalence eternal death; I soll a Christ ougheroidienby reason of the justice at Godin Sinvis an diferce antihe cherefore that was bur furthy was to talte of death, by reason of the cruch of God, who spake concerning the fruit of when harbidden aree you the day that the seaseff thereof thou shall furely dee, Gen lofe their freech, 'and der ondy wheez

It behoved Christ to die for the fulling of the propheties, and by reason the prediction of Christ himself conening his death, Fob. 10. 33.11

For the confirmation of the Testa-nent of his grace, which was to be per-Hebroses and and rot northeaust on

From the death of Christ, as it were our of a fountain floweth our redemption hence primarily is justification, Rom. 8.34. hence regeneration, or the reftauration of corrupt nature; our old man is destroyed by the power of Christs death, and fanctification is obtained: the death of Christ doth much weaken original fin in a Christian, and although the death of Christ be past, yet to this present time it doth mortifie our fins: because its vertue and efficacy endureth for ever. If so be that we apply this univerfal remedy of the heavenly chief Phy- 'Mors fician to our hearts. Let us therefore morris with the Apostle exult for joy and fay, mortem, o death where with sting, &c. 1 Cor. more re-

This

The Key of Buston

This bondage of death Jelus undertook that he might procure duto until liberty of eternal life, True real death feiz'd upon him sthat me might attain to true life, faith Sa Ambraje of our 107

Object.

19

But if Christidied for us sin'hy then multiwe die Weadliver, Ourideathis no fatisfaction for fins, but an admonition to us of the religues of fin inberent in us a cleaning us from them , and pallage into eternal life. Holinch is the end of our redemptions let us not the include our selves in pleasures. The mol Sweet Jesus vouchsafed to die for or fins, and because of this his unspeak able love we should rather choose andie then to suff into lia Bo, of the miles of it I most holy Jein; how few mores are for affected with forrown for the do lours of thy deathbathat they love holior ever. It to be the visig beariff to alan Christlaid down his life for his suited special year or his enemies; let us in like manner love behers it octation require a which was not thing the most boly Apostle S. John under geth in his a epist, ch. 3. v. 16. This love

This

carrily to be wished but can hardly be ened from a fort of men too too cru-

To conclude, death to beleevers is thing but a diffuiled thing to feare em det us therefore be farthful unto arth and not affaid to die some finne and telebro of the death of Christ his bu-

The bodies of the dead ought to be decently buried. They are effectived inmine who neglect this. Amongs thele were the Lorophagisa people of A. Historical Man, who cast the bodies of their friends graphici on the sea. The Sabeans, who threw passim. the carcules of kings amongst dung-hils. The Southeans I who to honour those whom they loved, did in their banques devourtheir dead carcales. The Hyrcamany who gave them to dogs or wilde bents All these are detestable.

But although the death of Christ were ignominious, yet his burief was vey honourable. For he was buried by men of quality in Nitodemus a great Lawyer, and Joseph a Counceller and Chizen of January, Thefe were disciples before but but fecretly, now they appear open fo great was the vertile of his pallio Moreover, many noble and religious w men helped forward this work. The he nour of his burial is evident also by oth circumstances: his body was embalin with abundance of spices and wrapped costly fine linen. Christ was buried in new sepulchre, hewn out of a rock, that if another should have been bur there, another might have been faid have rifen ; as the Fathers note. New man would be buried in a new pulchre, and in a garden, that his boo might be fowen there, and bring for the fruit of refurrection. That as in garden Adams fin was committed, fo a garden it might be expiated and far fied for. As his nativity was from a unstained bed or chamber of a Virg men blef fo likewife his burial, might not be de led by any dead body. He would be ried in another mans sepulchre, that he was born in another mans bonse being dead, he might lie in a grave the was another mans. And he would

Chinol the che care tand

tet

ori

tob

tha

out

ave a proper burial place, or sepulchre this own, who had no proper cause of each in himself. The sepulchre of Christ was a place of the chiefest devoion. S. Ferom speaking of Paula faith, That at her entrance into the sepulchre the Lord, the kiffed the stone and the very place where Christ had lien. The algrimage to this glorious sepulchre ath been most famous from all parts of the world. The Turk a most malicious enemy, getteth much profit by the visimion of the place; which for this cause, or for fear of punishment, he hath not yet destroyed. I think it not necessary for us to take fo long a journey, we may meditate on this matter more safely at home. And although there is appointed folemn procession at Lovain for the memory of Christs burial, where the bleffed Virgin and other women forrowfully following the dead corps, are wont tobe represented, yet we doubt not but that a pious foul may perform this without fuch pomp or oftentation, 19410.

Christ was buried, that the types of the Old Testament might be sulfilled to wit that of Jonah and others. As Joseph nah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so Christ soretole acconcerning himself, Matth, 12, 40. Be subject that he was truly dead: and that we might know that our sepulchres are sanctified by his being buried; no more to be horrid places, but sweet and quies chambers, in which we may rest until we shall be raised up, hence our burying places are called not support of the same stated to rest or sleep in.

We therefore being buried with a Christ by baptism into his death, ought to walk in newness of life, Rome 5, v. a where the Apostle alludes to a rite of baptism, which was by plunging for to his body who was baptized in this man for mer, was in a fort buried in the waters ign And they that were baptized were won to be thus plunged thrice in the waters by an allegoridal similified to represent the Christ dead and three days in merchant to the waters in the waters had been allegoridal similified to represent the Christ dead and three days in merchant to the waters in the waters in the waters was allegoridal similified to represent the Christ dead and three days in merchant to the waters in the w of it was, to fignific that as Christ by the corporal death is dead unto this hold to do the lame world; and to fin is lord and king; and with a purpose to lead a new life, as Terrullium expounds at is Let not fin therefore reign in our morhe sere in fleep and wine, but let us reckon felves dead unto fing and alive unto

The death of Christ is explained, pro-

th sudme to his descension into belt. Hell in the Scriptures is taken many of ways: properly for the place of the dam-of ned, metaphorically for the greatest for-for lows and infernal anguishes a moreover an for the grave, and formerimes for extreme ignominy. Hence arife the divertities of out upinions concerning this Article. Some es interpret it of the grave, but if to, the at time should be twice put in, and declais tel by a more obscure one, which in so to perpieuous a Compendium it is not likely likely would be done. It matters no much that this Article was left out in the Nicene Creed, perchance the reafor of it was because it never came into dis putation. Howfoever Enfebius who was present at the Council, delivereth the fame, as also S. Athanafius in his Creed received by the Church, although he omits the burial. Others expound it the torments of hell. Which if they me derstand thus, that Christ before he death felt torments equal to the infernal, this opinion is pious enough; bu if their meaning be, that after his death he did really feel the pains of hell, it st impious: for before this all things were finished. If we say as Durandus doth that Christ descended into hell verus ally, or effectively, that is to destroy he in the behalf of the faithful: or if with others, that Christ descended to the lowest degree of exinanition, or emptying himselt; verily these opinions con all tain nothing in them of salshood: But her fome refer this descension to the sould Christ. This opinion that you men likely

th in Noels Catechism, our Church in tems to approve of, in this fense Christ taid to have descended into hell, that he might demonstrate himself to be conquerer over the devil, and all the introduction that he might strike terrour ato the devils, and triumph most powdings concerning this matter. But my algement is, that this Article ought not to be handled subtilly or scrupulous our English Confession hath so appointed it in the third Article. Even as thrist died for us and was buried, so also thrift died for us and was buried, fo alfo it is it to be beleeved that he went down en into hell. Here is nothing determined of the manner of his descension. Let'idle wis by their curious speculations fearch e me this, and here if I be not deceived they will finde somewhat to do. Let it the affice us to beleeve, that Christ dethe feeded into hell, and hath performed all things necessary to our salvation: but for the manner how, this hereaster will be better known.

The Papists who have been bold very accurately to defcribe the parts of hell are not yet agreed; whether Christ de scended onely into the limbo of the thers, or into Purgatory also : whether he delivered any from thence out of hi special grace and favour, as Thomas do conjecture : or whether he delivere all, as Beneventure and Gabriel : or who ther also he descended into the place of the damned, as Bellarmine affirms. The feign that he descended that he migh deliver the Fathers out of limbor by we fay plainly that limbo is not know on mentioned in Scripture, that the fond of the godly were in the hand of God in not in hell, that the Fathers were re. deemed by vertile of the merit of Christ, the Lamb flain from the begin ning of the world, and not at length freed by Christs descension and Ilan van object. Neither is it any obstacle, that Chirild

E 3 .

Answ. 3.19. That place is thus explained, Christ by the spirit, that is, by his divinity, went, that is, being fent to the Church by the Father from the beginortug

ing, and preached, not by himfelf, but Nosh to the spirits in prison, that is omen, whose souls are now in hell, who e in time past disobedient, that is beore the floud, while they then lived! he it may be objected out of the same object. pofile, that the Gofpel was preached to them that were dead 101 Pet. 416. Here lieth the fallacy in the words Anfa. ofentence, The Gospel is preached to le dead, that is, to those who were ad, when Peter wrote thefe fayings: at it was preached to them when they were yet alive. Others with S. Auftin interpret this verse of the Gentiles being binimally dead before convertion.

he la contract of the contract

I confess many places out of the Fathers are brought against the Protefants: but this confequence holds not good, forme affirm it, therefore it is true.

we must know also, that the Fathers have uttered many things Rhetorically concerning the efficacy of Christs descension into hell, and have amplified them in lotty expressions: acting like Eccleliastical Orators, and therefore making king use of Rhetorical figures, not onely we to teach magisterially, but also to per the fwade and move the affection. Let of parties contend concerning this matter de thers contend concerning this matteri but thou O Christian soul, hold this w faith, that thou hast faith sufficient to believe, that the descension of Christ is the cause of thy ascension on high.

And so from the degrees of Christs exinanition, and the state wherein he was, before he made it evident that he was alive, let us pass to the degrees of his exaltation, amongst which the first that offers is selling the resource from the that offers it felf is the refurrection from

The third day he rose again from the dead.

ti P

P

(

1

Christ is said to have risen again on the third day, not fully complete, but being begun: which is typified by # nah, Matth. 12. 40. It seemeth notwithstanding that Christ was not three nights in the Sepulchre, no not so much as by parts; but onely the night of the Sabbath, and of the Lords day. Here therefore it is to be noted that their days were ely were reckoned from one mid-night to part of Good Friday, wall the Sabbath day, and part of the Lords day, on the which he rose early in the morning. And so the Romand who then ruled over the Fires y did compute their days and dignity and authority of less less orangin inghts. Christ rose on the third day: not be some, that it might manifest him to be unly dead i not later, because he would not hold his disciples and others any longer comfortless.

The rose, that by his resurrection from the dead he might declare himself with power to be the Son of God. And this

OB

tec h

ne re

ys re

was merely an effect of his divinity, to quicken himself by his own vertue and power; wherewith, being the Son of God, he was invested to all of mach oh!

That the Father is faid to have raifed object. the Son is no hinderance to this, Eph. 1. 20. This cometh to pals by reason of Answ. the unity of effence in both, which is fo great, that whatfoever the Father doth, the same also is the Son said simply to do. He

The Key of Taith.

He rose that he might demonstrate himself to have farished for our fins and to have purchased true righteous ness for us. Unless he had rifen, we had been yet in our fins, all our faith would have been in vain i Cor. 15. 17. Herofe for his own and his Fachers glory for the dignity and authority of his Perfon, Because of his office, he ought to reign for ever, and always to intercede for us. He role for our falvacion, for our justification on, for our regeneration, for our refune. ction and glorification. That he might raise up our bodies at the last day , the head being rifer , the members cannot but rife: like as Adam brought death upon himself and his posterity, even so Christ-life, the Lord makes the faithly coheirs of his glory; let us therefore rife again to the life of grace, and perfevere in the fame, arration out and Tal object. I It is objected that these benefits for Aufw. from the death of Christ. We answer that Christ did merit them by his deaths but they are declared and applyed by his refurrection. And if it be further faid Fle

The Key of Faith.

his these benefits were given to the shift beleevers under the Old Teltament pourantwer is, This was done in espect of the resurrection to come, and

Bur may fome fay, the ungodly also all rife again. They shall rife again insed, but to the judgement of condemation y not of absolution And these hings out of many concerning the remedion of Christ ni Holmid fishingm

99855E

の中とおれている。

出いい

5

Moet w

His Afcenfion followsmen adil at

It felbs like the Sun at his full meridian skendeth the highest Heaven. He as frended from the mount of alives to Bethary, and not onely into the acreal and ftarry heaven, but also into the emyeal into the feat of the Bleffed, bie acended according to his humane nature, Object, But we have it S. Fohn 3 13 the Son of man was then in heaven. But this was Anfw. spoken by communication of idioms, whereby the properties of either nature are attributed to one and the fame Perfon of Christ, by what name foever exprefied. He was there then according to his Divinity, nogu bastla, and adding But Answ.

But he that descended hath also ascended faith the Apostle, Ephes. 4. 10. He did nor descend as man, it seems therefore that neither did he afcend as man. But here the kinde or manner of the predication is changed, the Divinity descended that is, did shew it self in a place where before it had not so discovered it felf. And even as Jesus did discover or manifest himself in his humane nature in like manner he ascended.

He afcended on the fourtieth day after the refurrection; in this space he would instruct his disciples concerning his kingdom. He ascended visibly and locally : he ascended into heaven.

Object. An w.

But S. Paul faith, he aftended fur above all beavens, Eph. 4.10. That is fay fome, far above all the starry heavens: others determine that this doth not denote the fublimity of the place, but the excellency or highness of the Divine Majesty, Lecause he hath all things in subjection under him. Some will have Christ to be in a void space above the heaven, and with his feet to stand upon the outmost furface

Peuhhaanewould

のはいにした

furface of the highest Heaven where the saints live under him. But the words of the Apostle compel us not to the belief of this. He may be said to have ascended far above all heavens, when he ascended into the supreme or highest Heaven, and to the most worthy place therein: even as we say, not onely he that gets up to the very top, is said to ascend a tree or a tower, but he also that climbs up to the higher boughs or steps, although he stays beneath the top.

But it may be objected, that Christ objer. promised he would be with us to the end of the world. But this is to be Answ. understood of the Deity of Christ, of his grace and power spiritually, not of his humanity, and corporally. Christ assended, that he might intercede for us: and although the intercession of Christ was before his ascension, yet it depended upon this glorious intercession. It was made before in the worth of the sacrifice that was to be offered, but now of that which hath been offered. Secondly, Jesus ascended as an eagle, that we although though but worms, may ascend with him, Adam had thut up heaven, Christ opened it again. And although Emoch and Elias ascended before him, yet it le was not by their own but Christs power, w by which also he himself ascended in Thirdly, Christ ascended, that he might give the Holy Ghost: and although he was given before, yet it was in regard of the Ascension, and after it in a more pl give the Holy Ghoft and although he plentiful manner of girl of the guadants

Hitherto of the Ascension of Christ, of no his firing at the right hand of the Faher to

followeth. him and bluo to God to The right hand is attributed to God per div seu mona deras, chat is, by a borrow !! ed speech from men, and it signifies the !! chiefest power and glory. To sit at the it right hand, is a phrase taken from the cultom and manner of kings, who place h those whom they honour at their right | hand, and cause them whom they let o gether with them, So Christ is faid to fit at the right hand of God the Father, because the Father, after he had finishthough dour redemption on earth crowned him th the chiefest glory, above all Angels admen in heaven, and declared him to Head and King of the Church , by whom he would immediately governall hings both in heaven and earth, and shom he would have to be adored of all ceatures, The Lord faid unto my Lord, in show on my right hand, faith the Prophee, Pfal. 110.

cb ie

17)

bt

he '6

re d

IC

10

e te ıt.

11

-

0 ij

The fitting therefore at the right hand l, of God, is the fingular and proper dignity of Christ Ocarden we, God and man, er conferred upon him by the Father after his Alcention. And it confifts, First, in the perfection of his Perfon, or the equality of the Word with the Father, which indeed he did not then first of all receive, but it being vailed in the time of his humiliation, he did again make apparent or manifest. Secondly, this dignity confifes in the perfection of the humane nature, which, the infirmities being put off or laid afide, is adorned with lopereminent and furpatting excellency of gifts, wildom, and power. Thirdly, this this dignity confifts in the perfection his office, because Jesus is constituted appointed Head of the Church. The true Trismegist is King, Prophet, Pries And although he was the Head of the Church before, yet was not that according to both natures nor always exalted Fourthly, the dignity of Christ confists in the perfection of his honour, be cause he ought to be acknowledged an extolled by all as Lord of all. All thing are put under Christs seet by reasons his glorious victory, and although some things may seem to be refractory thim; yet they are to be repressed by him at his will and pleasure.

Object.

It may be objected against the sitting of Christ at the right hand of God the Father, that S, Stephen saw him standing at the right hand of God, Acts 7.55

Anfw.

elida

But by this posture he expresso Christ, his readiness to affist them the are his Champions; as when Christ said to fit at the right hand of God thereby is shown the Majesty of Chris glorified; therefore both of them in one in a diverse respect. Besides, some Thand of God is every where; the hubiel me nature fitteth at the right hand of thoo, therefore it is every where. But to this argumentation you are to fay, the me are four terms, as in this which follows. con its; The fea compaffeth the whole bould, a certain city is fitting by the and therefore a certain city compaffeth ning whole world. Neither allo doth the on a sting of two infeparable things re-commerce, that wherefoever one is, the other would be a but onely that they are domewhere together, and not at a diince. This is evident in the foul and the head, which are united infeparactio and yet, not whereforer the foul chi there is the head, when as the four is and the feet, where the head is not. But .55 effort us give over this subject, and be of shat god courage. Christ sittleth at the right risk and of God the Father, interceding son God at O how great a comfort is this? Let half a therefore embrace the Lord Jesus a such our chiefest love, and do his will true and 70

TUTO

The Key of Faith.

we shall be blessed when he she come to judgement; of which there mention made in the next Article.

From thence be flath come to judges quick and the dead.

That word [From thence] deligned the place from whence the Judge the come, namely from heaven. He the come from thence, whither the disciplifaw him alcending, Acts 1,9, 10. As alchough the work of judgement in be affigued to every one of the Performance of the Performance of the execution is committed to a Son, as he is the Son of man, object. As for that place, John 5.22. The A Answ. He judgeth no man alone and wither the Son, but by the Son.

Neither doth that of Christ in an wife contradict this, when he faith feb. 12. 47. I came not to judge. He speaks there concerning his first comin in the stelly, in the which he came no to condemn the world, but to sayes nd not of his fecond coming, which is Neither is that which is faid of the postles, that they shall judge the twalve ribes, Matth. 19.28. and of the Saines, hat they shall judge the world, I Cor. 8.7. by let hereunto; for this shall be done them by way of approbation, not of athority.

300

The end of Christs Advent or Cong is explained by the diffribution of fubjects, that he may judge both quick and the dead : under which ms all men altogether are compreended, who are faid to be quick or dead, in respect of that state which preodes the judgement i The quick being they whom the last day of judgement hall furprize alive, who in a moment hall be changed from a mortal condiion to an immortal. The dead, those, who from the beginning of the world have departed this life, and before the laft day, shall be raised up at length by the trump of the Arch-angel, and prefenred before the judgement-feat of Christ r Christ: and the Angels are included alfo who kept not their first station, Fade, v. 6. and are therefore reserved in chains under darkness, to the judgement of the great day, 2 Pet. 2.4.

object. It may be objected, that the devil is now judged, Joh. 16, 11, and he that beleeveth not is condemned already, John

3. 18.

Answ. We answer, that this is done in part to wit, in the word of God, in their own consciences, or in respect of the beginning of their punishment, but they shall be judged afterwards, in regard of the manifestation and promulgation of the judgement already made; the exasperation of the punishment, and the consummation of the torments both of body and soul.

The last judgement shall be set up, that every one may receive what he hath done in his body, whether it be good or evil; and that the justice of God may be published to the praise of it. Since God is just; it is necessary that it be perfectly well with the good and godly, al godly, and that the wicked and impions de le for ever miserable, this very thing is in not done in this world, therefore it is the righteous to recompense to them who couble the godly, trouble; and to you his who are troubled rest, when the Lord be Jesus shall be revealed from heaven, Second of the ha a The J. 1. 7.

100

bot

9(8

UD fé

be

ii, rit

and lly,

That there shall certainly be a judgement, this we know against the Epicum reans, but the year, moneth, day and hour, we know not, no, not the Angels in heaven, Mark 13. 32. The Fanaticks the ert, who either out of an enthusiastical the revelation, or Arithmetical calculations, pe and Astrological prognostications, do on fet down the time when the judgement hall be, but without a right judgement. Let us in the mean time prepare our felves all our days, and moments of our lives for the coming of Christ; and let is take heed left that day come upon us of unawares, and finde us unprepared. The last day is hid from us, that we might watch all our days: it is always unknown, that it may be always expected; let therefore that tetrible trumpet eve make this noise in our ears, Arise y dead, and come to judgement.

The second part of the Oreed was concerning the Son of God, the thin follows, of the Holy Ghost, I believe in the Holy Ghoft.

We are to believe, that the Hol Ghoft is God, and that he is the thin Person of the Trinity, equal to the ther and the Son in all persection. The is clear out of Sacred Writ, and the do ctrine of the Church, which do rende equal glory, to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghoft.

object. Yet it may be faid, that he who re ceives from another, is not his equal But the Holy Ghost hath receive fomething from the Father and the Son: Ergo.

Answ. This is true of him who receiveth par from another, in time, successively, an by grace: but the Holy Ghost receive from the Father and the Son the who effence from eternity and by nature.

Some may object, that he that is fen not equal to him that lenderh : but is doth not hold, where the mission or ending is by a voluntary confent.

He is called a Spirit, because he is a mitual effence, and that by way of exllency, because he is far above all creed spirics.

of the dead and the dead of th (en

It may be objected, that the Father object. d the Son are by way of eminency

So they are indeed absolutely, and by Answ. ture: but this is attributed to the foly Spirit by appropriation, as it were characteristical note, and because his roper office is to fanctifie the elect. He breathes into our hearts good motions, and he himfelf was breathed from the Father and the Son, as from one which the Oriental or Eastern Fathers o teach, when they fay that the Holy Shoft proceedeth from the Father, by the Son: even as we fay an apple cometh from the root by the branch, yet the toot and branch are not two principles. The pool arifeth from the river, and the river from the fountain: b the water of the fountain, river and poo are all one and the same. The Fath as the fountain, begetteth the Son, a the river. The Father and the Son, the fountain with the river breathe for the Holy Ghost, as it were a pool: their effence is one and the fame. Th late Grecians are accused, because the think that the Holy Ghost did not pro ceed from the Son: neither will I con rend very much to excuse them; but their doctrine were with moderation explained, perhaps the difference b tween them and us may feem to be words and not in the thing it felf. An if any nige us more morolely, that it is no where faid, that the Holy Gholt proceeded from the Son; we will not contend about the word, it he be granted to be the Spirit of the Son no le then of the Father, and to be fent from the Son as from the Father; which is all one in sense as to proceed. Neither do I beleeve that the Grecians will deny this, Certainly this procession is done in done, is not for us to fearth over-

The Spirit is said to be Holy, because is essentially holy; when as the Angles are so by the grace of creation, between by the grace of adoption. And cain he is said to be Holy, because he the Author of true or perfect holists: he is a quickening Spirit, because it is the efficient cause of spiritual life nour souls. The body is dead without the soul, and the soul is dead without the spirit. Let us say with David, of lard renew a right spirit within us, Pial, 51. 10, and so the short third part of the Creed is briefly explained.

The fourth follows, I believe the haly

Catholick Church,

I beleeve the Church was, is, shall be, and that I am a lively member thereof: I beleeve not in the Church; the affiance of the heart is to be directed onely to God, This Church is a company of men that are called, who do embrace the word of God, and that rightly rightly use the Sacrament, The Chur is called Ecclesia, from the Greek wo canadar, to call forth. The conve tion of meeting of Citizens among the Athenians, who were called for by the Cryer from the rest of the co pany to hear the judgement of the S nate, had that name given them fwerable to which there are a com of the faithful amongst Christians, w by the preaching of the word are call out of the kingdom of the devil. hear Gods will and pleasure. Church is called holy, because it is f ctified by the most precious bloud of fas, because by his metits it is purific through the word, facrament and faid and because it is taken up in the hol exercises of Divine worship, and Chri stian charity. They are not true menbers of the Church, who abroad in the world thine in fanctity, and at home bound in iniquity i nor thole, who like to the lastivious Monks, who body is in the Quite, and their minde their chamber: of whom Innocentia faid

d of old, In the night they embrace sery, and in the morning they adore the From outward fanctity we cannecessarily conclude the inward hores of the Church. But beloved, be holy within and without. To be ints and feem to is good, to feem and acto be such is work of all. Feigned To proceed, The Church is called Catholick, that is Universal, This ord is not written in the Scriptures, but after the times of the Apostles it bem to be used.

The Church is so called, because it gathered out of all kinds of men throughout the whole world, and bedule it doch profess and approve of the Catholick doctrine of the Prophets, of Christ, and of the Apostles, by an unaalmous confent. So Catholick is the fame with Orthodox, and it is opposite to heretical: as it was first of all oppofed to the Arrian herefie, and to others, not judging aright of the Trinity. And they were called Carholicks, who did follow follow the true doctrine of the Divinin of Christ as it was expounded by the state Nicene, Council. This fignification of the Catholick is the most principal one Where there is not an universality of the faith, there the universality of time and place is of no avail.

object. If any one should say that the Church of Rome is Catholick in respect of place of

It is a contradiction in the adject, be nel canfe all and one do not agree; The Universal and Individual, the whole and no the part. Neither is the Romish Church Catholick in respect of the doctrine of it, because it is foully fallen from the me faith, and fosters most grievous errous.

Neither doth that make for it, that it is called Catholick. For it is not to C nough to be so called, but to be such en We are not to look what is done, but in what ought to be done. The Pontife m cians are called Catholicks by us, but fit either according to their own opinion, or ironically, even as they call us the or Reformed. But ours is the true Catho the lick Church, because the doctrine there the was declared by the Apostles the troughout the whole world, and bea case it is entertained and received by me men of all sorts, because it was propoa set in all ages, although not in a like me degree, and for that it is consonant and agreeable to Holy Writ. Let others the please themselves in the beautiful shell of a name, we had rather obtain the kerme of the thing.

.

Hitherto concerning the Church, and new let us treat something of the Com-of Communion is a relation between the two or more having fomething com-

Church, which are faid to be holy, the either for the imputation of Christs agreeousness, or their begun conformity to the law, or for their separation from the world.

The communion of Saints is the common possession and interest, which the members of the Church have a mongst themselves in Christ their Head,

Head, and all his benefits and gifts This communion therefore confifts First, in the union of the members of the Church with their Head Christ which is not the subsistence of the bo dy of Christ within our bodies, bu the inhabitation of the same Spirit And truly they are three, yea for times bleffed, whose fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jess Christ: concerning which Saint John by speaketh in his first Epistle, chap, and verse 3, Good God, what a noble at the fociation is this? What is more de- 5 fireable in this life then to have perfect amity with God the Father and Christ, by faith, by hope, by reciprocal love, by mutual colloquies, ob fequiousness, joy, by the communication of good things, as it is be tween a father and an adopted for between the brider on and the brider of I befeech you therefore by the plen-I beleech you therefore by the plen-tiful effusion of the bloud of Jeis C on the Cross, that ye walk with God, or have your conversation with Godi all not' in the darkness of unbelief, or of de, but in the light of faith, grace and vertue. God by his nature is light, od of darkness, if ye would be joynof no him, ye must of necessity bid en to darkness, and your delight-

The fecond part of this commuth non is the union of the members of the Church between themselves, We his king many are one body in Christ, and h the Doctor of the Gentiles, Rom. 12. of sand from thence the holy man doch infer golden or precious precepts amongst some other these, Let love be methout dissimulation: Communicate and stribute to the necessary a distribute to the necessary of the Saints in rejojce with them that rejoyce; weep with them that weep : be of the fame winde one towards another: as if he hould fay, I would have such a sympathy or fellow-feeling among you Christians, as to be equally affected both with the good and evil things of all, whether in prosperity or adversity. Beloved

4

1

Beloved Auditors, yeeld ye ob dience to thefe admonitions of the Apostle. Be ye endued with hum mity, or brotherly love, charity meekness, bounty selet it be a flian to Academians, who ought to be mo rational creatures then others to given to anger, brawlings, envying disobediences ; evil-fpeaking; inh manity and revenge; frun thele ces which become not the Student of humane learning, and after the examples of the Christians of the P mitive Church, Be ye of one hear and of one minde, Alls 4, 32, An if ye shall forgive others the injur that are offered unto you by them ye shall also obtain remission of his from your heavenly Pather, Th which is treated of in the following words: a see one shrang one shin

Forgiveness of fins is the will of good pleasure of God, whereby he forgiveth believers both the sin, and the punishment due to sin for Challenger

ment

rits fake. Yea, their most enorous fins shall be forgiven, for it repugnant to the infinite goodness God to be overcome by any huone wickedness. He doth injury to od that despaireth of his mercy; hely Saint Augustine against those ords of Cain, Genel. 4. Mine iniregiven. After this manner faith he, hou lyest Cain, for the goodness God is greater then the iniquity all men and elsewhere he hath written, That greater is the mercy of od then the milery of all men verily, it is a most excellent speech of his unto God in his meditations: Although O Lord, I have committed that w which thou mayest condemn me, yet ben hast not lost that whereby then hazest lave me. It is most true, for a sinner do repent, the Lord will or remember his iniquities. Let the ricked for sake his way; and turn aain unto the Lord , and the Lord will breve mercy on bim, Ifai, 551 700 God there is omnipotent mercy gran merciful omnipotency a fuch is th benignity of his omnipotency, an the omnipotency of his benignity, the there is nothing that he will not cannot forgive a beleaving foul: oftentimes beyond remission God b flows most abounding grace. Wh cannot repentance do for Who in the fecular state finned more enormous then Paul? Who in the religio more out of meafure then Peter they by repentance did not onely at tain to the ministery, but also then giftery of holine's, one a state

But to rexplain this Article mor whough O Land I have committed the

We must know, that God is the principal efficient cause of remission He alone can forgive fine primarily o Ministers of the Church are oney administring causes as they are me Tengers of the Divine forgiveness. G onely ely of himself forgiveth sins, befe he cleanseth the soul from the hard blentill or stain, and releaseth from the debt of eternal death;
the hath not granted this to the est; to them notwithstanding he h given the power of loosing and ding; that is, by shewing them writes, the view of northing from Diff. 18.

with the justice of God to forgive and not to punish it.

This is true; if he punish it neither Answ. the sinner, nor in another; to wit, furety: But God hath punished in Christ, some may object again, that it is unjust thing to punish the innot for the offender. We answer, a not, if the innocent party offer neels spontaneously to punishment, he can go through it and get out it, and if this tend to the glory God, and the salvation of men, all which conditions do meet very we in Chrift. hat after the last is all and

It may be further objected, the fre this remission of God is not free con bestowed; because satisfaction was notice quired to the forgiveness of fin. B. Tank we fay, the fatisfaction required w not made by us, but by another, we be urged ftill, that he who fuch condition forgiveth, doth forgive freely. It may be answere It is true counless the party that quires it doth also give the fatt ction: But God the Father hath ven his Son, that the might fats for as a dad how sull cyreme

Hitherto of the remission of for the resurrection of the body, or se followeth. This year saids the man

Credo resurrectionem carnis single believe the resurrection of the believe the resurrection of the believe to the believe the result of the I believe the resurrection of the bal or flesh. Due it it mande og numb

It is a very difficult thing to derstand by the sense or perception

COTTU

thic

ight ight

Q¢

rupt reason, how or in what manfer to many transmutations, and be united to the fame foul: And therere many in the Areopagus derided when they heard of the reirrection of the dead yet by the ghe of faith it is most clearly mae fest that there shall be fuch a rerection ; It will not be difficult to m to beleeve this who do beye that with God there is noing difficult: the restitution of the ody or flesh is by far easter then its the constitution of forming. It wis of leffer concernment by much to relore that which hath been, then to ake than which never had any be-He which could make all things of nothing, can eafily raise ain our bodies out of fomething; wit 2 restore them out of the dust the earth and why should we adre, that that could be born again, hich hath had a being, when as we behold that to have a being whi never had any before Holy 406 the Old Testament man Evangeli man before the Gofpel andoubted of this thing of know, faithrhe, th my Redeemer liveth ; and after the porms shall confume abis body of mil get in my fleft I Shall fee God of I shall fee for my fetfiland not then will ob ad good son Thy; deally hall live i faith Ifaiah so the Le together with my dead body shall t arties chapuito verse spilliAnd the New Testament, the Lord le fus al Formission 8. dechumoft ap rently attest the felf-fame chingles bour fall come sin the which all are in their groves flight bear his w and they mbach have done youd A come forth wate the refunition of l but they that have done cost unse the farte Etion of condemnation : SAP also very notably confirms the relie rection by very many arguments, a th 15, the which arguments I defe ou to fearch out from thence, d

The Sadduces therefore have ter d, who beleeved not the refutieion; Acts 23: 8, and the Epicures, who practife the like with them; whom death is the utmost bound dend of all things, son sh

It may be objected our of Becleft Object. fery chap! 37 verse 19, than there one and the fame. event both to and beaft. But the beafts wife tagain, therefore neither do men rife that have agained industry and and To this we answer, The Preacher Answ. peaks there according to the judgeent of a natural man, whom he fings in the speaker, and afterwards eaks of the general qualities of man d beaft, but nor the special; and hews wherein the fimilitude holds tween men and beafts to wir, in the natural death, but he doth not peak of the state and condition after the natural death; of mercilian part Befides.

Befides, bodies shall arise again the fame in number, and with perfection and beauty: in the fame form, as i is likely, which men attain to, if the come to mans estate. Our bodies shall be like to the glorified body of Christ The molor, not the moote, in qual ty, not in quantity; & aliqualiter non equaliter; and after some fashion but not equally. Our bodies shall be spiritual, not in substance, but for certain qualities and proprieties: the shall have agility, subtilty, and bein cotruptible of the same on side off

The Anabaptists err , who denie that bodies shall arise again the fan in number: and affirm that at the fi cond coming of Christ new bodies sha be created lend the ming sale sure origen also was in an errour, w was of this opinion, that it should be an aereal body, not a carnal that shoul rife again: It is very warily warded in the Creed, that the very felf-fame flesh shall arise. For the resurrection is sthe same body shat did falls as the ord it self implies the ord ord ros

So fai concerning the doctrine of the refurrection. That which remains to me to do nis to warn and admonish all layer and my felf too a that win mow we would rathe to the life of grace si that by foldoing we may breafter arise to the life of glory of which there is mention made in the last Articles, now the in a melon we had in sale in basin ni

of

In hell this is the state of the wretches there, that they have death without death; in a dreadfull manner; an end without an end, a defect with our defect; because that death always liveth, and the end is always beginning, and the defect knows not how a cease; death destroyeth and extinguisheth not. God preserve and teap us from this eternity; which that he may do glet us repent; a mend our lives, correct our prides for it is not so easie a thing to be saved as men fay. If we do this, we shall a ter into life everlasting, in 1151 stihing

This life is the eternal being o those that live in heaven yalwhir is an seternal swell-being. It is cal led eternal life, not in regard of the part which went before, but of the which is behinde, because it is to endure for gever the sile or some ?

In this life there will be the ne ceffary presence of all good, and the necessary absence of all evil, Whatfoever shall be lovely will be there prefent y nothing thall be defired, that fall not be there; there thalf be life without death, day without night, fecurity without fear, pleasure with out grief, tranquillity without toyl, beauty without deformity, frength without weakness, rectitude without perverinels or frawardness, love with out malice, truth without fallhood, felicity without mifery. The bles fed shall rejoyce for the pleasantness of the place which they shall polfels, which they shall reign; for the gloified body which they shall have; a regard of the world which they have contemned, of hell which they have escaped, yea in respect of God, whom they shall behold for ever and

In the life eternal there are the most choice delights, and the greatest store of riches. The good things which are there exceed all understanding, and therefore amuch more, that which can be said of them. I will therefore admire in silence, what I cannot express by speaking.

te

B

h

t

Lastly, it is to be noted, that this word Amen, is added to the Creed, as the feal of faith, as if a Christian should say, I believe all these things to be most true,

8. August de Covit. Dei, lib, utr. cap, ult,

Non alius est sinis, nisi pervenire ad regnum, cujus nullus est sinis.

There is no other end, but to attain to that kingdom, whereof there is no

most choice delights, and the greatfit flore of riches. The good things obtain are there exteed all understanding, and there grayingth more, that which can be fild of them. I will wherefore admire in a constant I cannot express by speaking.

Lastly in to be noted, that this word Amen, is added to the Creed, sthe feel of faith; as if a Chillian should say, I beleeve all these things to be most true.

Torrespond the Tiers

S. Auguft.

ment have said the real of the miles argest frances the property There is no or present a the to real on a spirit knowled to the nii Nii hi n 01